

TOMORROW'S Patriots

Davrien Lambert is a Precinct chair and conservative Grassroots leader based in the Dallas-Fort Worth area he currently serves as the South Central Regional lead for TPUSA rise where he oversees activist training leadership development and Community engagement across Texas Oklahoma Arkansas and Louisiana.

His work focuses on building durable Grassroots infrastructure and advancing constitutional conservative principles through local party involvement and youth leadership Davrien looks forward to learning directly from experienced professionals sharpening his ability to engage and mobilize communities and growing as a leader who can effectively advocate for their principles he believes in.

In his free time Davrien enjoys staying active and social. He likes working out, hiking, fishing, camping, traveling, attending conferences and events, listening to podcasts, reading and having meaningful conversations that challenge thinking and help him grow personally and professionally.